

Digital Conference: April 23rd 2021

Internationalisation TIG Agenda

Our link will be <https://mau-se.zoom.us/j/65999936132>

15.00 Approx..	Welcome and Introductions: Ben Bartels The TIG Programme: Karen Hudson
15.10 Approx..	Presentation 1: Prof. Dr. Anatoli Rakhkochkine, Maximilian Hödl and Maren Hanneken  Potentials and Limits of the Internationalisation of Curricula in Teacher Education Programmes
15.30 Approx..	Presentation 2: Zdeněk Janík and David Košatka  Developing a long-term internationalization strategy: A case study from the Faculty of Education, Masaryk University
15.50 Approx..	Group discussion in break-out rooms: Examples of good practice of virtual/blended international cooperation during the pandemic.  Many ETEN members have continued to offer international experiences to their students despite the global travel restrictions caused by COVID-19. Please come to these small group sessions ready to share the ways in which you have re-invented and re-imagined internationalisation in the last year. Please remember to elect a scribe who can take notes and feedback to the other groups in the Plenary Session.
16.15 Approx..	Plenary: Break-out group feedback and suggestions for next year.
16.25 Approx..	End of session